Summit, Miss.

And in the sweetness
of friendship let there be sharing of pleasures and laughter . . .

And let there be no
purpose in friendship
save the deepening of the spirit.

Kahlil Gibran

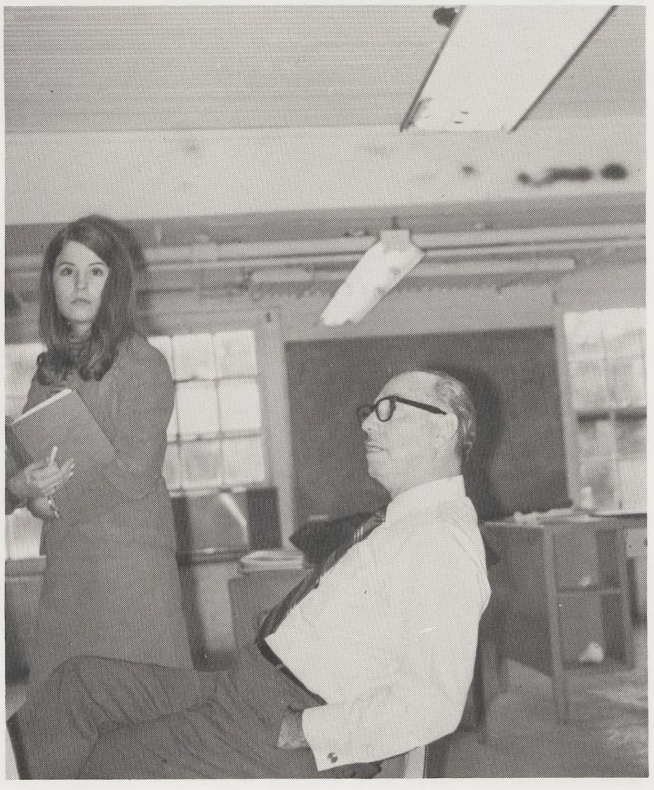

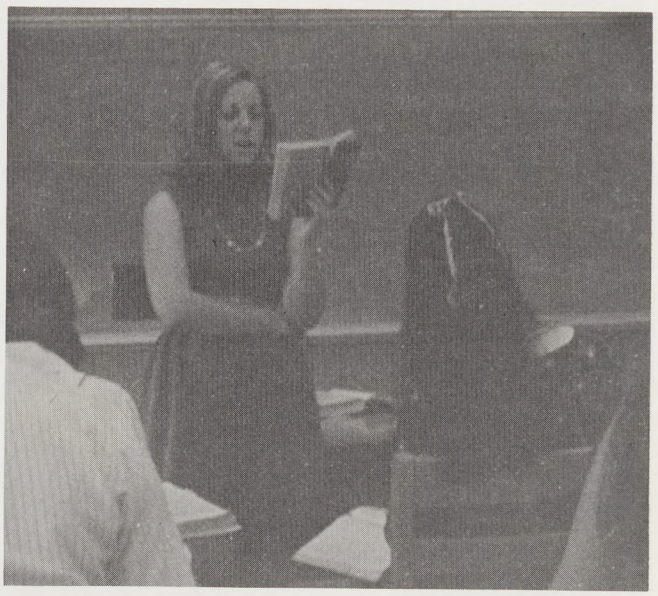

But I say to you, when you work, you fulfill a part of earth's furthest dream, assigned to you when that dream was born. And, in keeping yourself with labour, you are, in truth, loving life.

Kahil Gibran

If he is indeed wise, he does not bid you enter the house of his wisdom, but rather leads you to the threshold of your own mind.

Kahlil Gibran

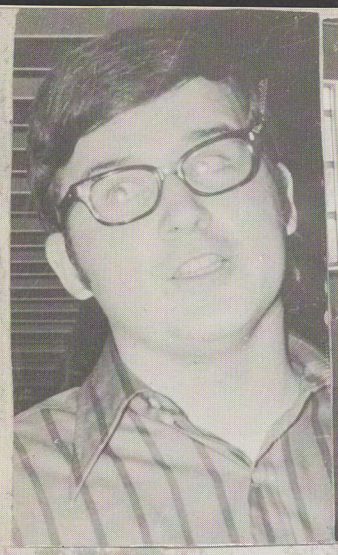

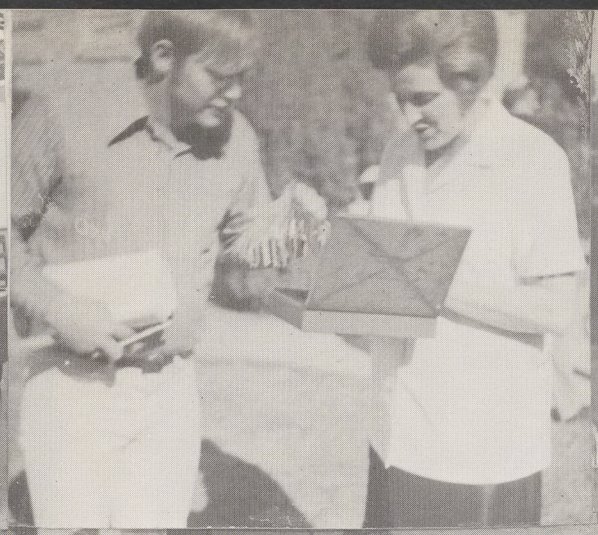

JANE

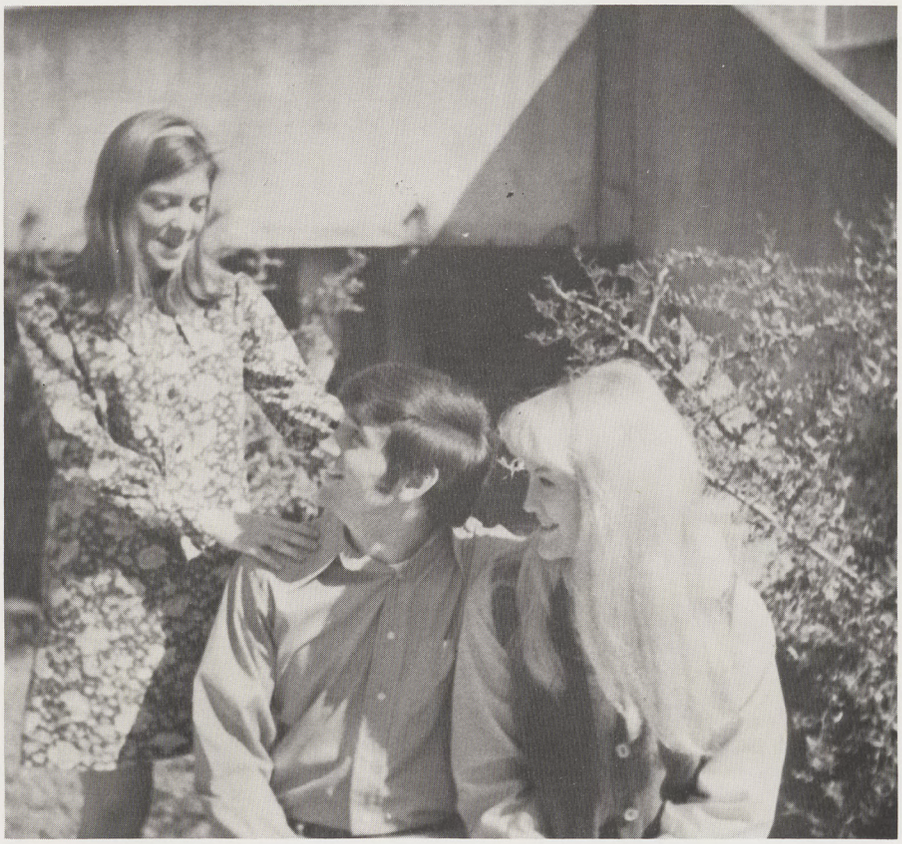

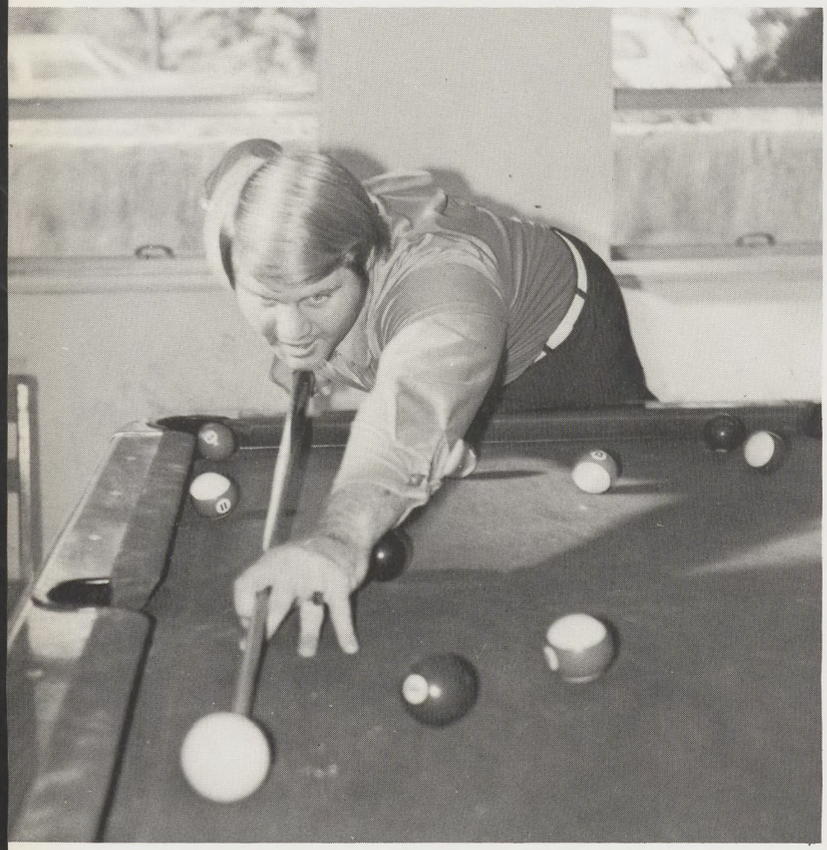

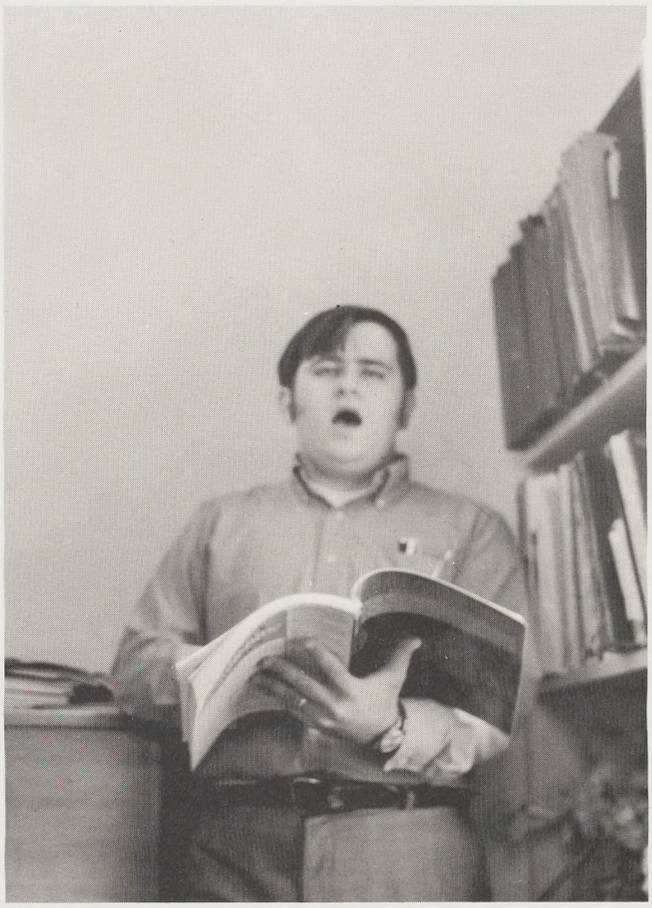

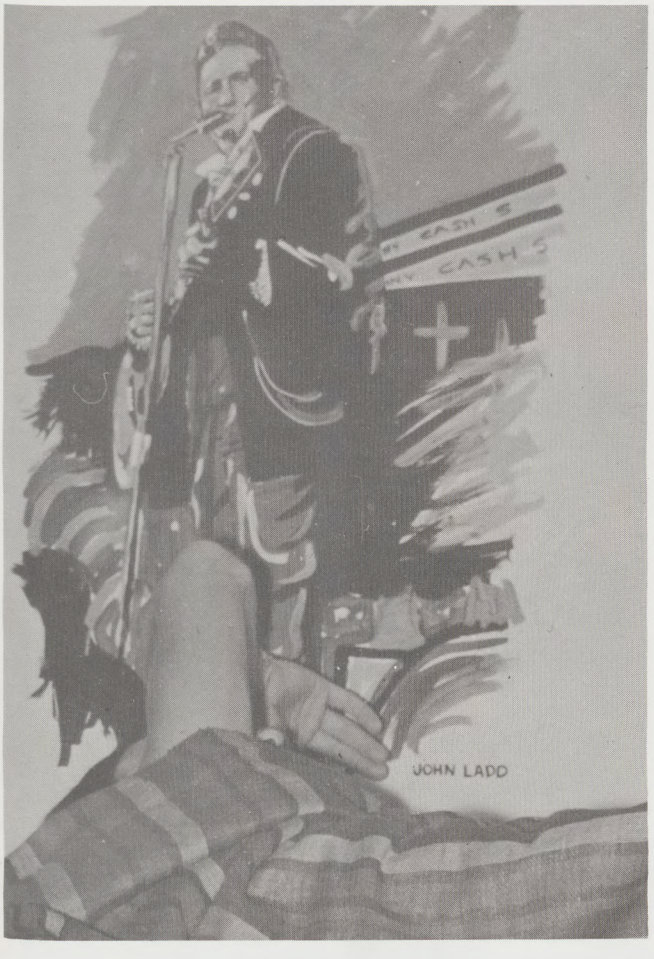

I'll be a dandy,
and I'll be a rover.
You'll know who I am by the song that I sing.

I'll feast at your table,
I'll sleep in your clover.
Who cares what tomorrow may bring.

Today while the blossoms still cling to the vine.

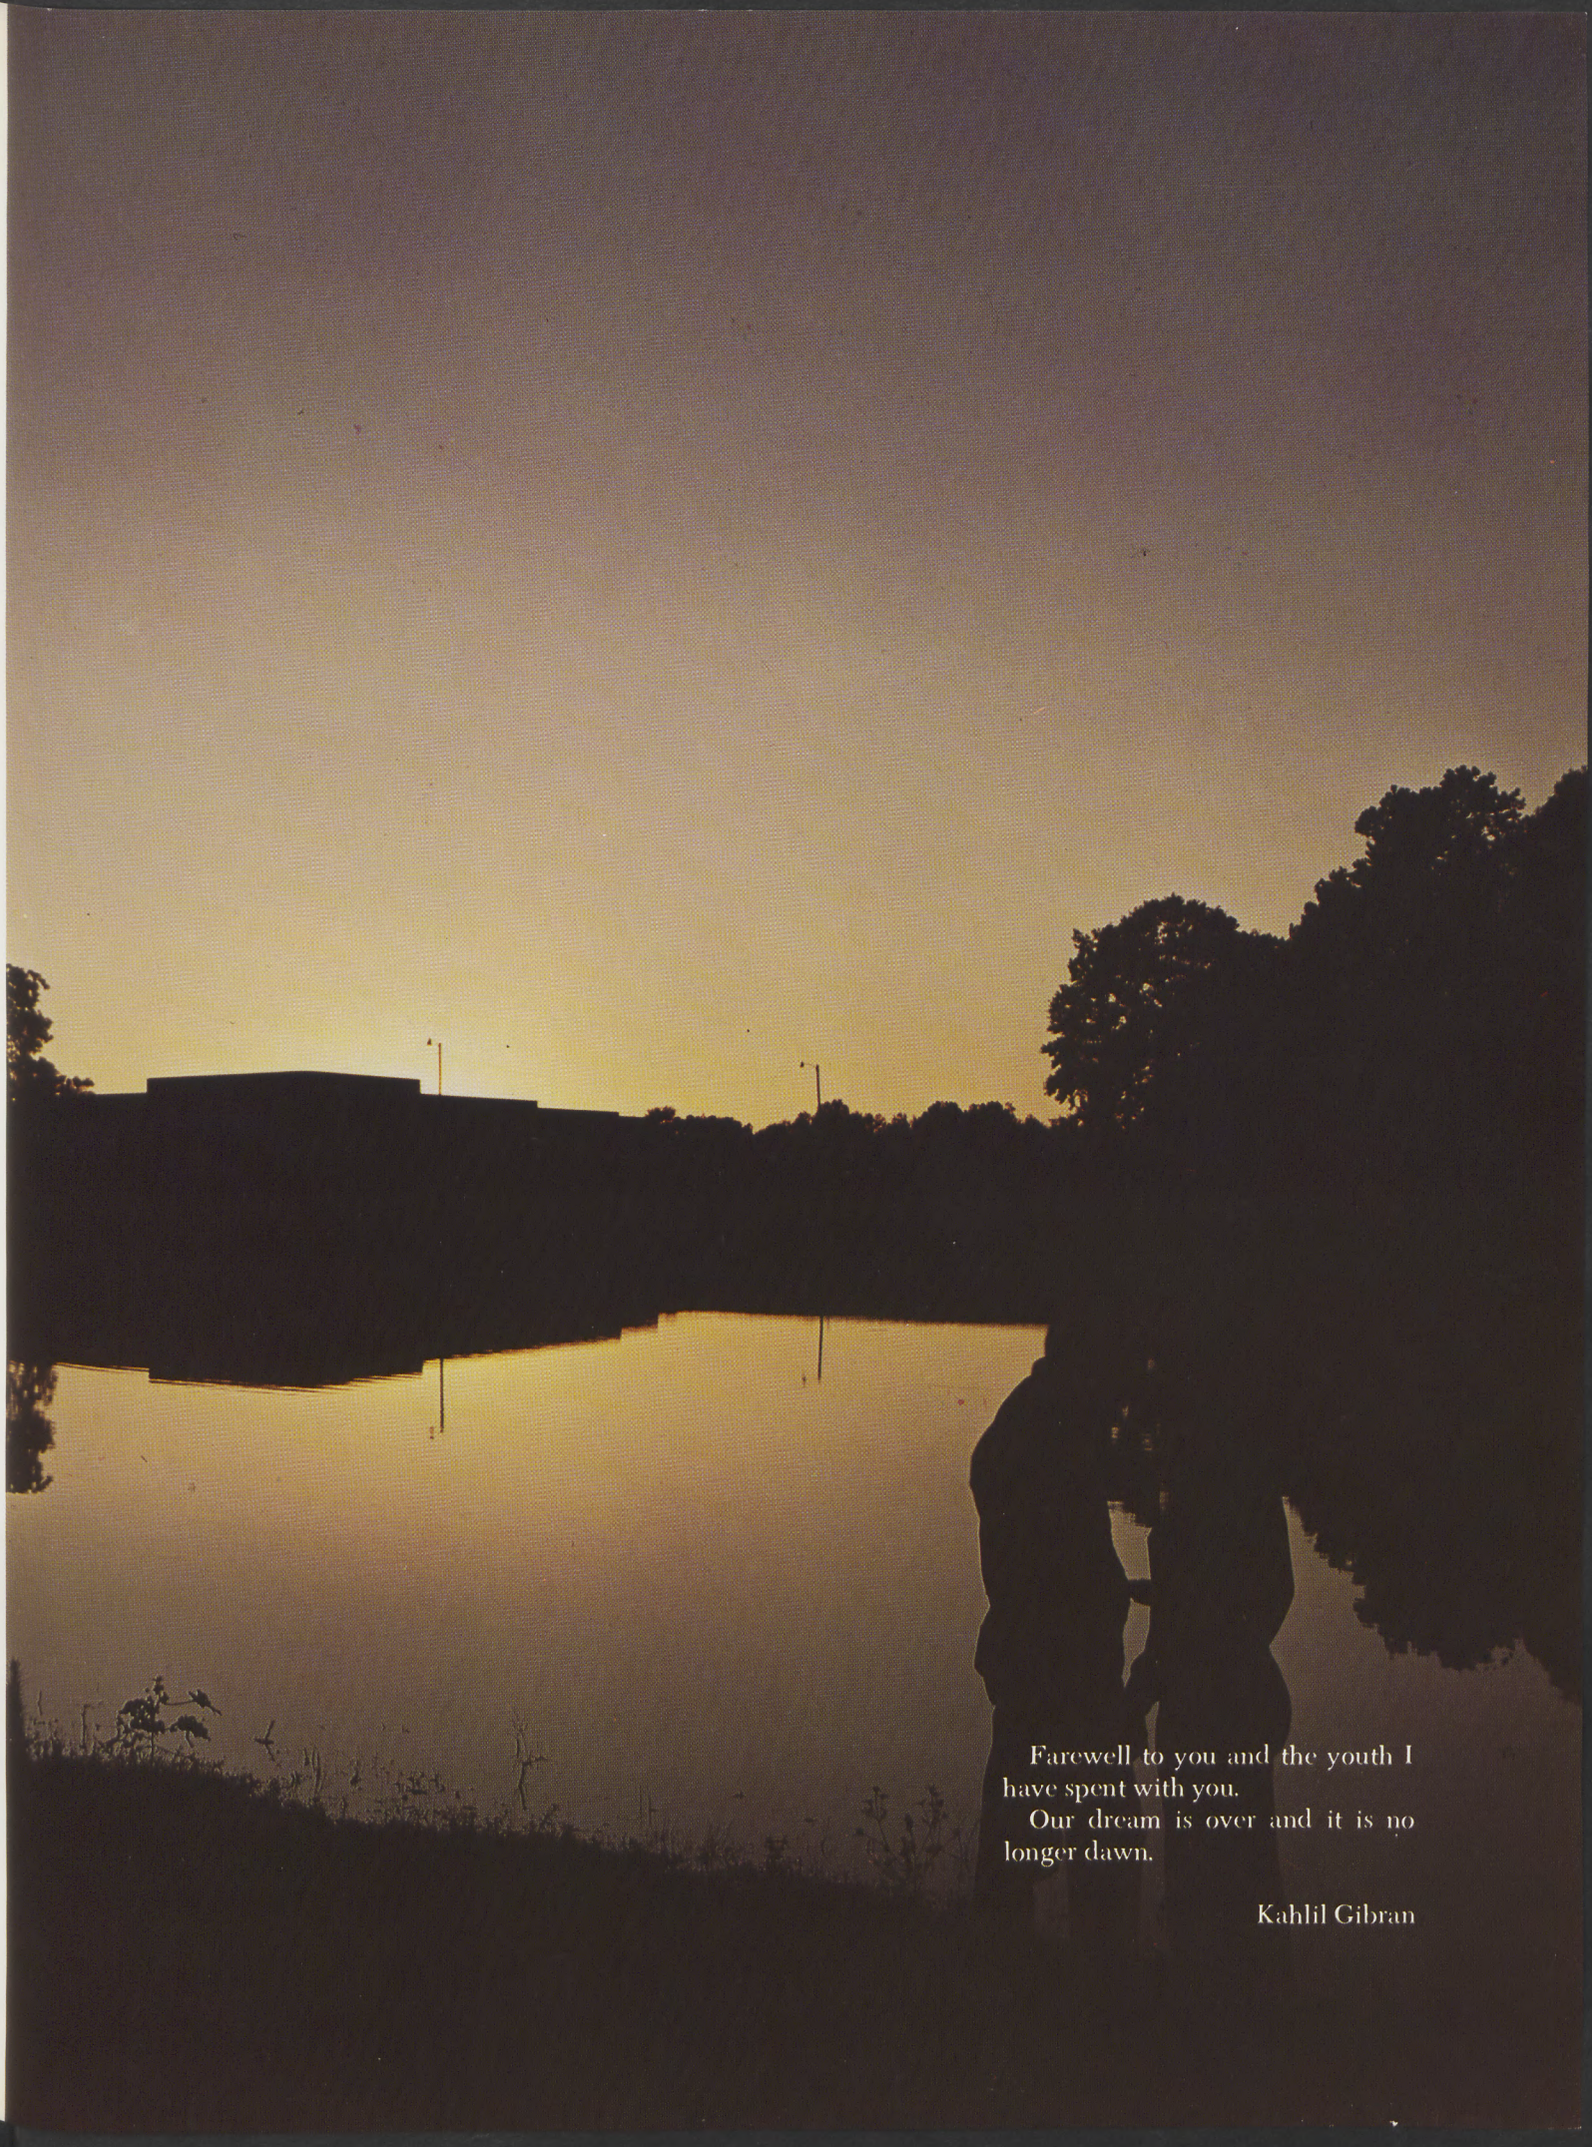

I'll taste your strawberries, I'll drink your sweet wine.

A million tomorrows shall all pass away.

Ere I forget all the joys that are mine today.

Farewell to you and the youth I have spent with you.

Our dream is over and it is no longer dawn.

Kahlil Gibran

DEDICATION

A kind word, a smile, a Christian, and an educator . . . For your many years of unfailing service to Southwest Mississippi Junior College, we dedicate this the 1970-71 Whispering Pines to you, Mrs. Neil Craig.

Larry Lossett Bettye Sue Walsh Mal Jones Rae Ella Creel

There are some rare people who can please everyone by their sheer friendliness. This person will ultimately win because he is winning all along by showing a deep and sincere friendliness towards others and a capacity for human love. He contributes much, always exhibiting a pleasant personality and an optimistic attitude.

At SMJC he played football, was a member of the homecoming court his freshman year, and was on the dean's list.

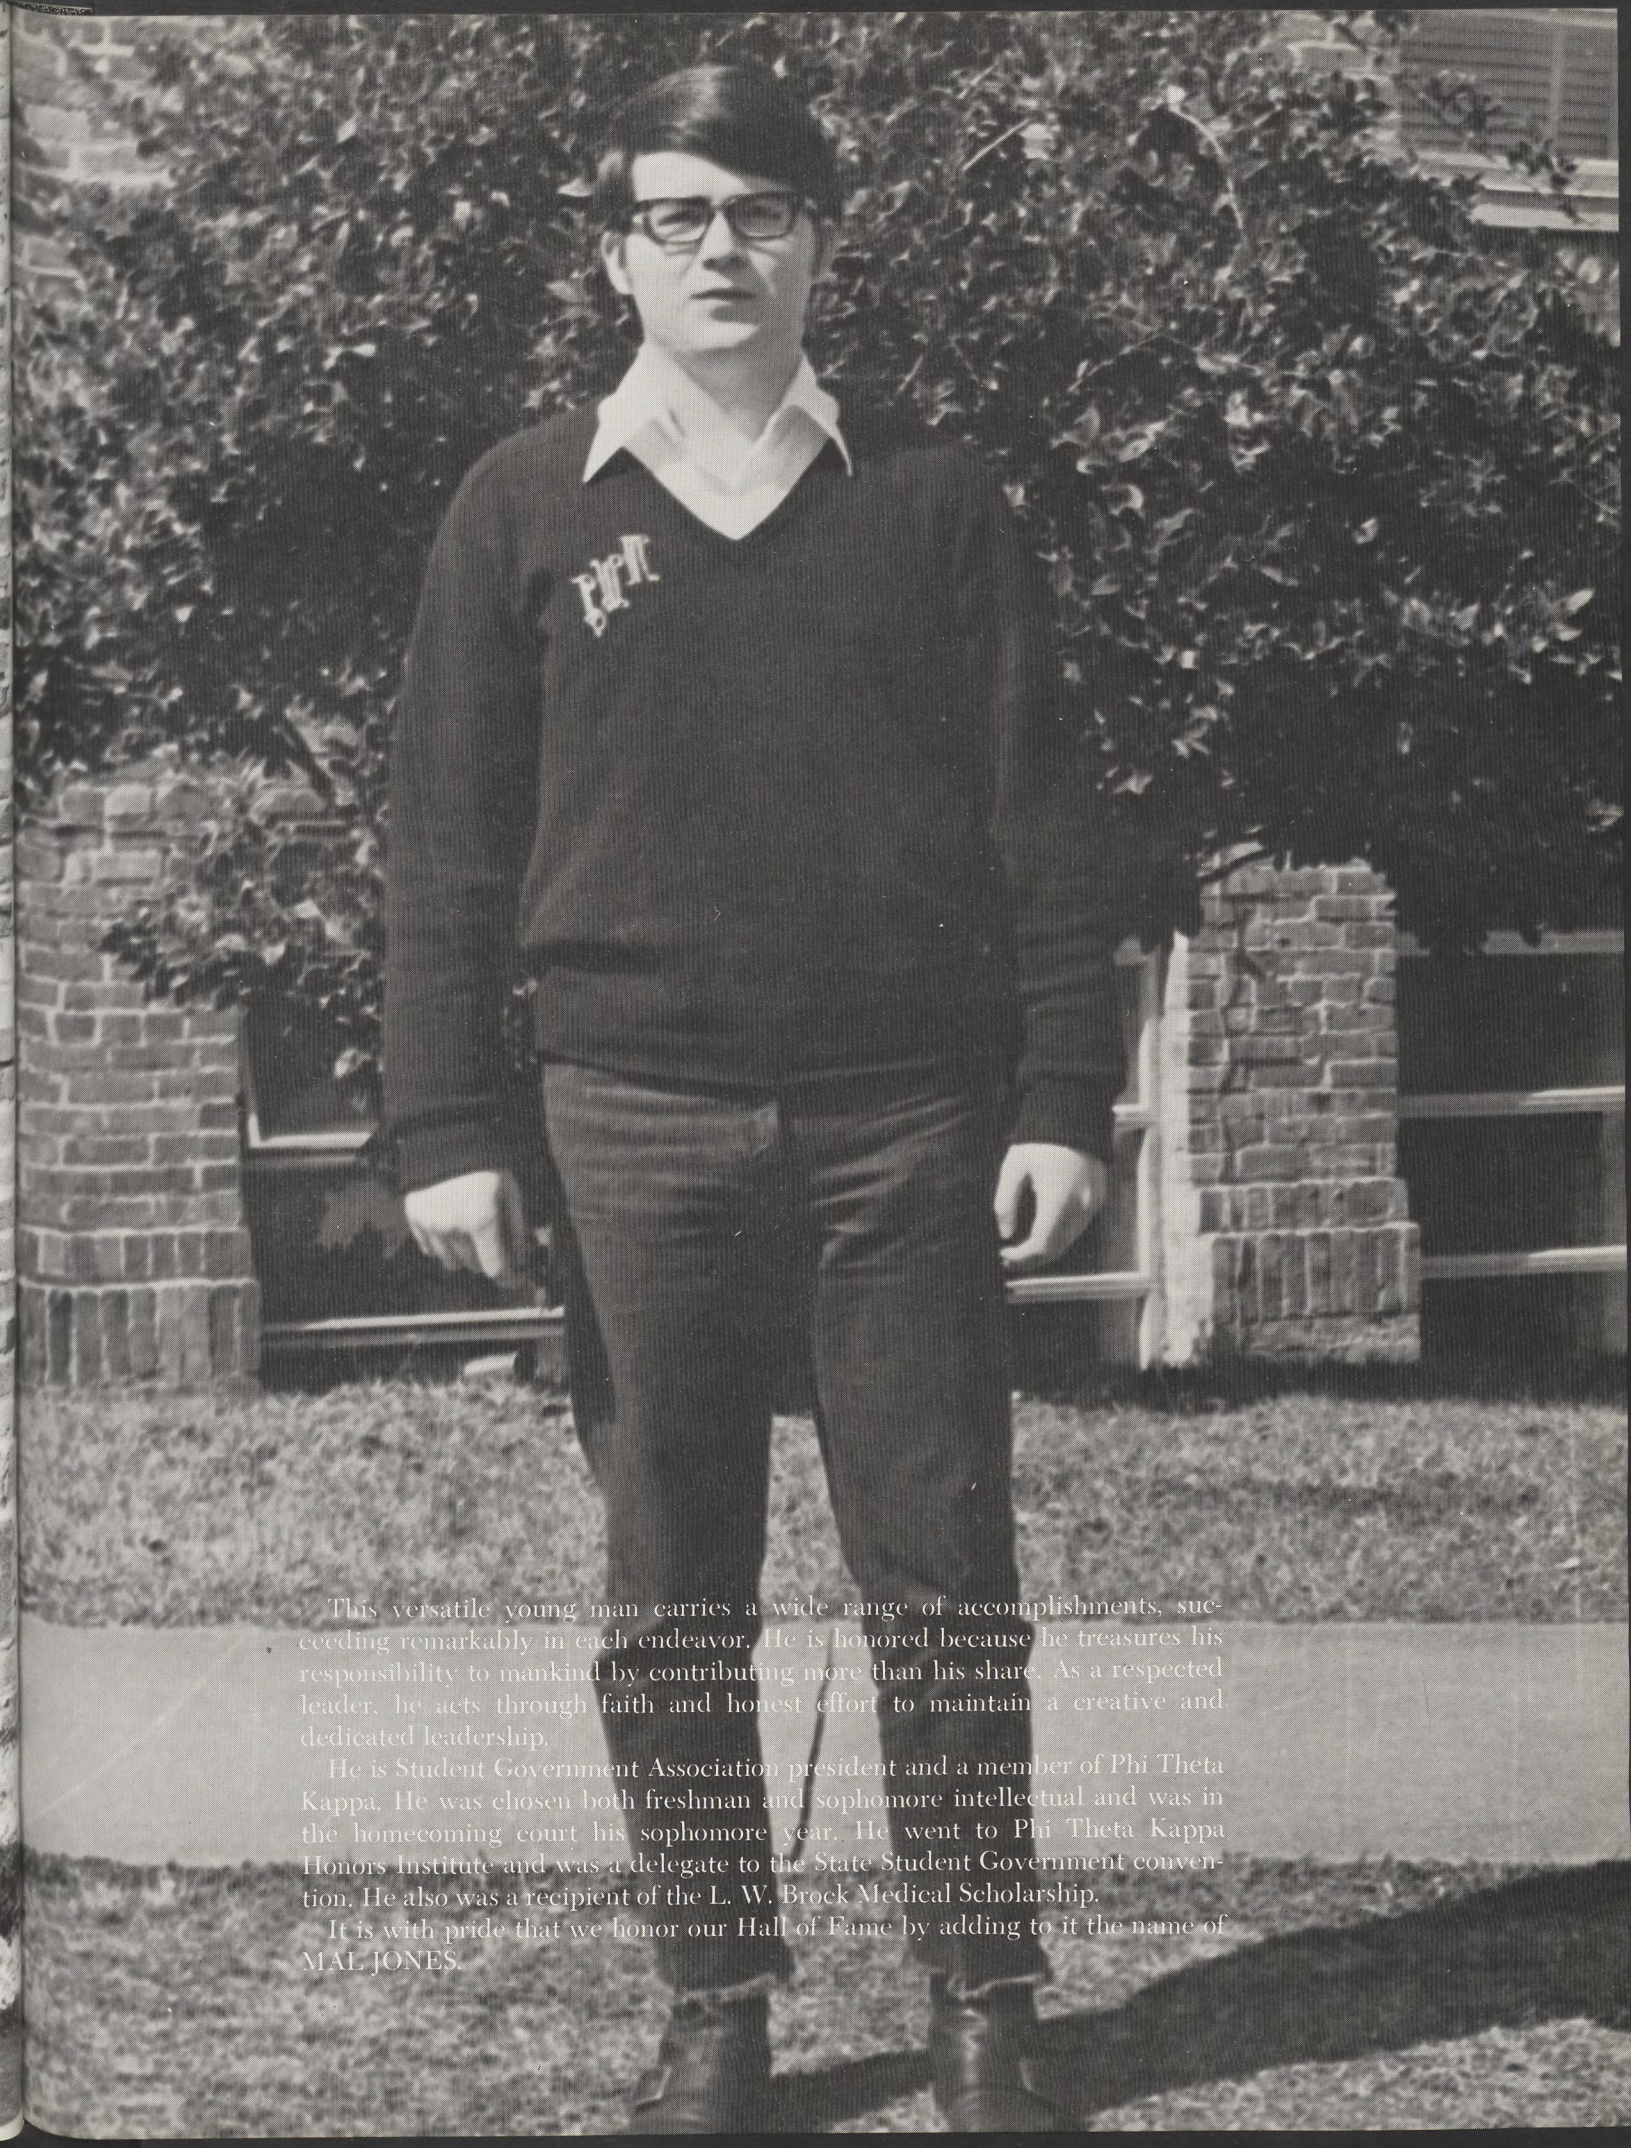

To honor the merits of true friendship and genuine loyalty, SMJC recognizes LARRY LOSSETT in the 1970-71 Hall of Fame.

A sincere and warm personality that wins affection describes BETTYE SUE WALSH. The genuine interest and concern she radiates form a strong base for friendship, and by her very nature, she improves and strengthens relations among others. This is one who gives until all who know her feel she loves the act of giving.

Her activities at SMJC include being vice-president of the Student Government Association, editor of the "Whispering Pines", BSU choir director, a member of both the Southwest Chorus and bell choir, Phi Theta Kappa member, and she was elected Sophomore Intellectual.

For sincerity and service the name of Bettye Sue Walsh is proudly placed in the SMJC Hall of Fame.

This versatile young man carries a wide range of accomplishments, succeeding remarkably in each endeavor. He is honored because he treasures his responsibility to mankind by contributing more than his share. As a respected leader, he acts through faith and honest effort to maintain a creative and dedicated leadership.

He is Student Government Association president and a member of Phi Theta Kappa. He was chosen both freshman and sophomore intellectual and was in the homecoming court his sophomore year. He went to Phi Theta Kappa Honors Institute and was a delegate to the State Student Government convention. He also was a recipient of the L. W. Brock Medical Scholarship.

It is with pride that we honor our Hall of Fame by adding to it the name of MAL JONES.

High ideals, a charming humor, and faithful school spirit merit RAE ELLA CREEL a place in the Hall of Fame. This young lady's dependability and willingness to do for others, find her always at work.

Her activities at SMJC include Student Government Association secretary, a delegate to the state Student Government convention, a recipient of the L. W. Brock Medical Scholarship, and a member of Phi Theta Kappa.

Because of her intellectual abilities and diligent work, Rae Ella Creel has been chosen for the 1970-71 Hall of Fame.

Is that all you saw at Mardi Gras?

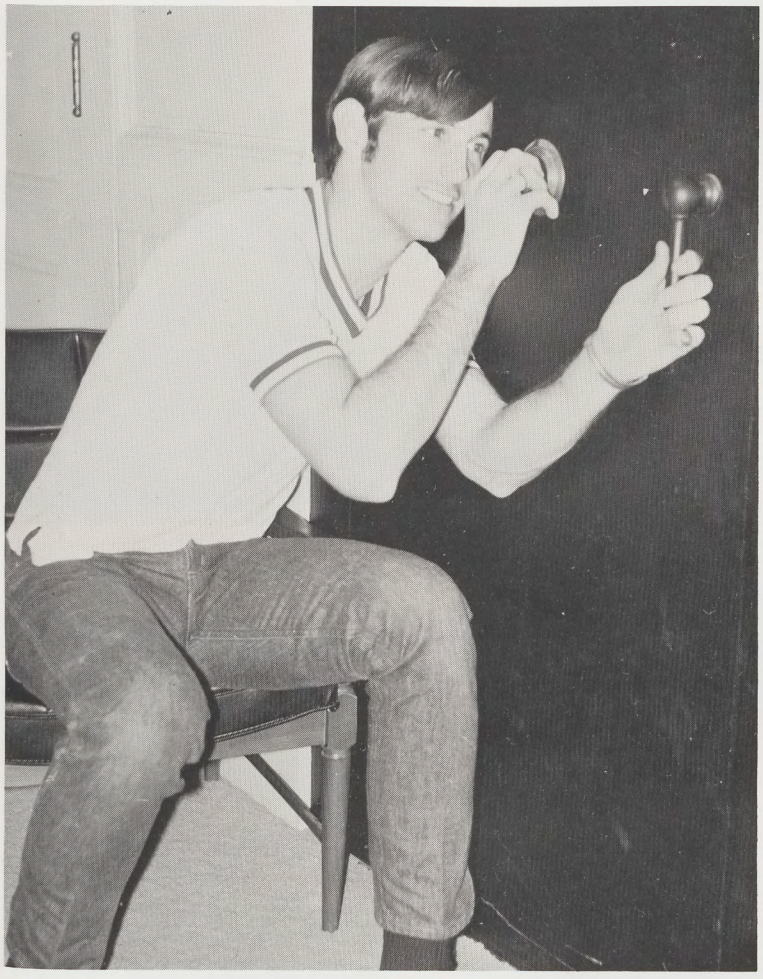

Hell's Angel's at SMJC?

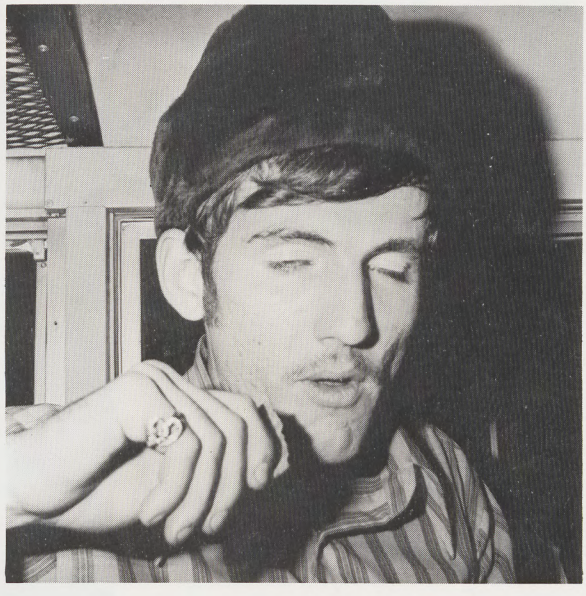

Eat drink and be merry for tomorrow you may have an ulcer!

But I wanted to go straight.

Watch out! Mr. Quin is coming.

Happy Hangover. . .

Don't look!

Where's the little girl's room?

Love those "Soap-Operas"

O.K. Who took my ladder?

What's the hole in the roof for?

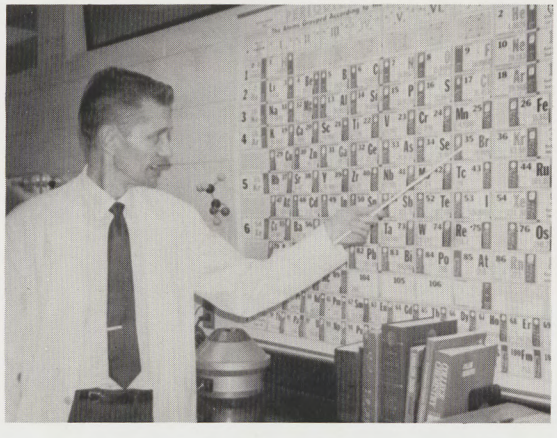

Who needs a pogo stick?

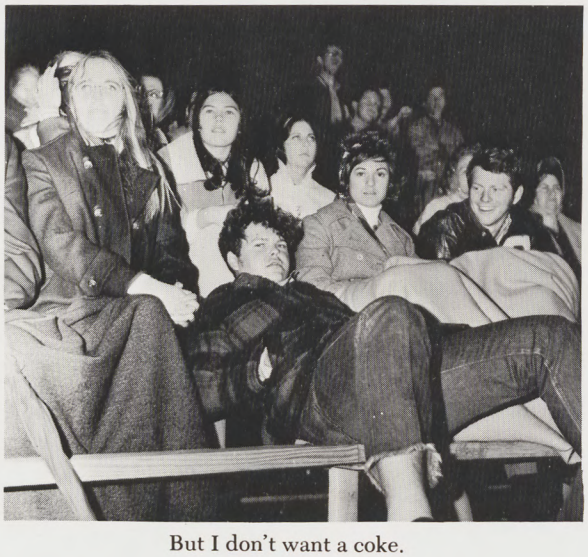

Steve, you can't put the flag up with your eyes closed.

"The mirror of my imagination"

According to my calculations the lab will self-destruct in 5 seconds.

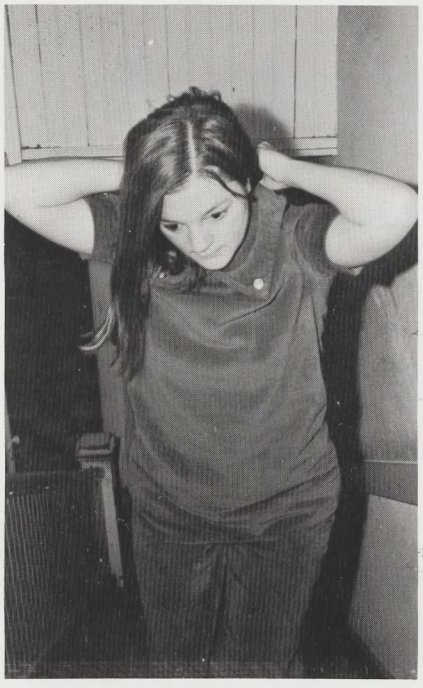

But I don't want a coke.

I want a blind fold before you shoot.

That just can't be $E^{7'}$!

I wonder if it's been unhooked all day?

I will not shut my mouth!!!

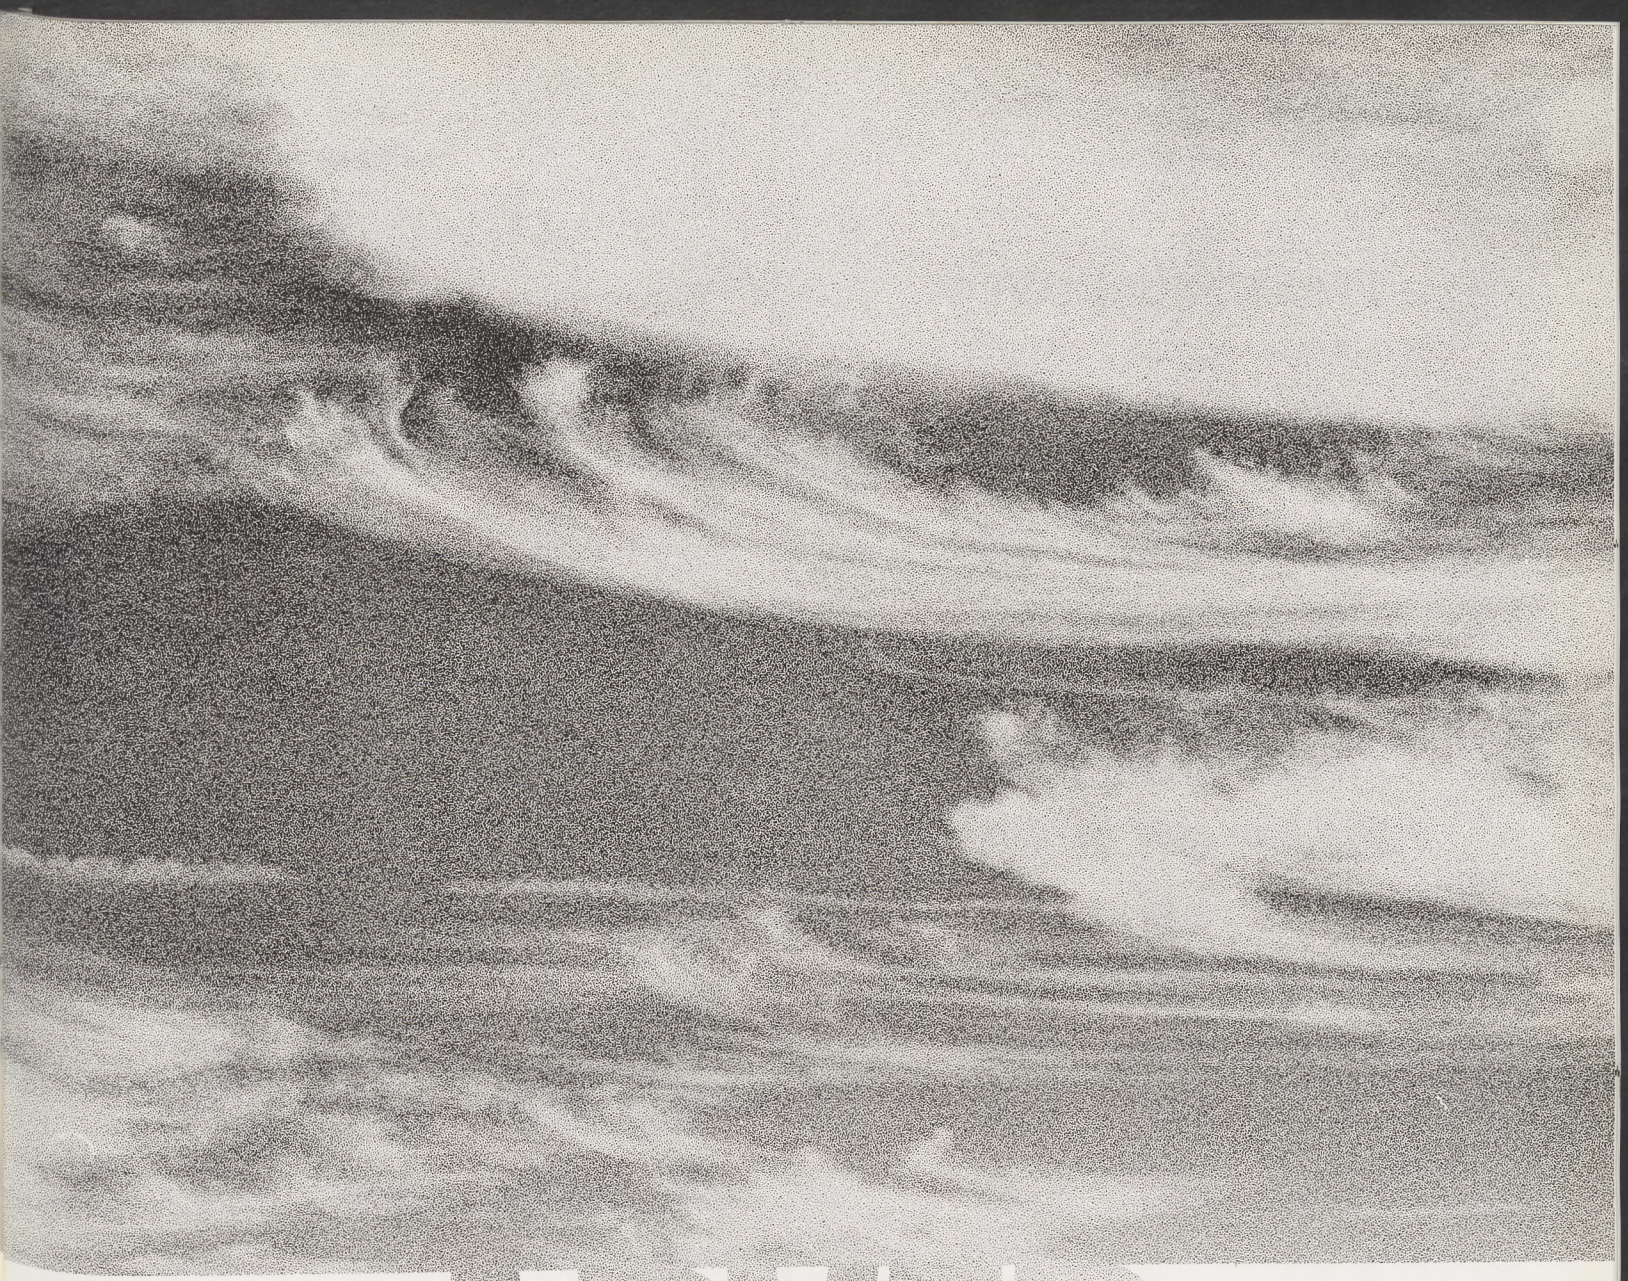

I didn't do it.

It want do anything!

Big Daddy rules the roost.

AUTOGRAPHS

Gene Robertson

Today is a place, a force, and a fantasy. It was a dream, a name, a choice, and a fear. It will ultimately be a memory of classes and clocks, of books and bells, of lectures and friends. A memory of lines, loves, labs, coffee, Rook, football and cheering, singing, voting, and finals. A memory of happiness—a memory of sadness—a memory of being for a moment a member of a class now gone forever. This was SMJC . . . A MEMORY OF OUR HURRIED YOUTH. But perhaps this annual named Today can preserve for you glimpses of that youth.

I wish to thank my supervisor, Mrs. Craig, and my staff for their effort in making this publication a reality.

To name everyone who helped would be impossible, but my special thanks go to Dr. Edsel Stewart who graciously allowed us to use his home for the Who's Who pictures and to Miss Valorie Nybo whose sincere dedication to all students found her delving even into this phase of campus life.

Let us always cherish the dreams of today and reminisce the year 1970-71.
